

VOICE 4 CHANGE

Big Society: The Equality Impact on BME communities

17th March 2011

Jemma Grieve
Senior Policy & Parliamentary Officer
Voice4Change England

 CabinetOffice
Office for Civil Society

 BIG LOTTERY FUND

V4CE's mission

Providing an authentic, influential voice

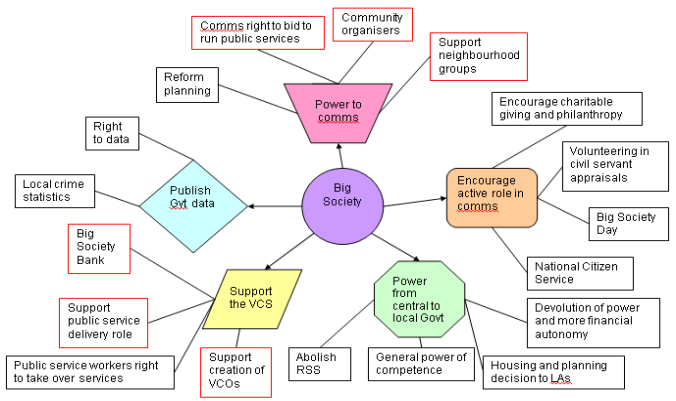

Increasing capacity/ demonstrating impact

To strengthen the voice of the Black and Minority Ethnic voluntary and community sector to meet the needs of disadvantaged communities

Raising awareness

A national voice for the Black and Minority Ethnic voluntary and community sector

What is the Big Society

Power to comms

- Comms right to bid to run public services
- Community organisers
- Support neighbourhood groups
- Reform planning

Encourage active role in comms

- Encourage charitable giving and philanthropy
- Volunteering in civil servant appraisals
- Big Society Day
- National Citizen Service

Support the VCS

- Support public service delivery role
- Support creation of VCSs
- Public service workers right to take over services
- Big Society Bank

Power from central to local Govt

- Abolish RSS
- General power of competence
- Housing and planning decision to LAs
- Devolution of power and more financial autonomy

Other elements:

- Publish Govt data (includes: Right to data, Local crime statistics)
- Reform planning

A national voice for the Black and Minority Ethnic voluntary and community sector

BME VCS: already delivering the Big Society

- Communities coming together to self define solutions to problems – the Big Society!
- Response to failure of mainstream services.
- Sensitive to cultural, religious and linguistic needs.
- Engage 'hard to reach' communities.
- Empowering users and strengthening social mobility.
- Building bridging social capital and creating social cohesion.

A national voice for the Black and Minority Ethnic voluntary and community sector

Equality, fairness and the Big Society

- Putting equality into the Big Society: V4CE fringe events
- Responding in a time of cuts
- Engaging young people
- Working better together
- Accountability

A national voice for the Black and Minority Ethnic voluntary and community sector

Big Society and BME support organisations

- Value of specialist support
- Collaboration and merger
- Wider support market
- New organisations and needs
- Voice and representation
- Accountability
- Income generation

A national voice for the Black and Minority Ethnic voluntary and community sector

Impact of Spending cuts of BME VCS

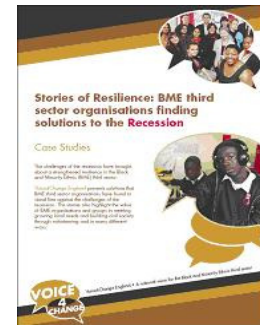

- Fragile funding base
- Increasing demand for services and new community needs
 - Proposed cuts to legal aid
 - Cuts to ESOL English for Speakers of Other Languages funding
 - Benefit reforms
 - NHS reforms
- Closures and reduction in services

A national voice for the Black and Minority Ethnic voluntary and community sector

Solutions: Stories of Resilience

- Partnership and collaborative working
- Accreditation through quality standards
- Improving performance
- Staffing reviews and staff development
- Review of organisation and management
- Effective volunteer engagement

A national voice for the Black and Minority Ethnic voluntary and community sector

Big Society: What do we want to see?

- Voice and involvement
- Recognise specialist infrastructure
- Fair funding
- Fair commissioning
- Value specialist public service delivery
- Strategic oversight
- Accountability

A national voice for the Black and Minority Ethnic voluntary and community sector

Shared Vision

- Collaboration
- Communication
- Celebration

A national voice for the Black and Minority Ethnic voluntary and community sector

Shared Vision: Pledge your support

- We believe the BME VCS is a crucial part of civil society.
- We support the BME VCS to seize the opportunities and tackle the challenges identified in A shared vision.
- We call on policymakers to act on the recommendations and commit to disseminating the messages from A shared vision findings through our networks.
- Website: <http://www.voice4change-england.co.uk/shared-vision.html>
Phone: Heather Kennedy on 0207 843 6137

A national voice for the Black and Minority Ethnic voluntary and community sector

Contact

Email

jemma@voice4change-england.co.uk

Telephone

020 7843 6128

Website

<http://www.voice4change-england.co.uk/>

A national voice for the Black and Minority Ethnic voluntary and community sector